Beacon Communities Named to Top Women-led Businesses List

Boston, MA, 11/06/17 – Beacon Communities has won a mention on the 2017 Top 100 Women-led Businesses. The Commonwealth Institute and the Boston Globe magazine released the list which ranks organizations based on a formula of revenue, operation budgets, number of full time employees, workplace diversity, and innovation in the organization. Finalists were honored during a breakfast event on Friday, October 27 at the Intercontinental Hotel in Boston. This is Beacon’s second consecutive year on the Top Women-led Business list.

This year, Beacon Communities was named #33 on the list and their second consecutive year on the list. “It is an honor to be recognized, and to be in the company of this dynamic group of women business leaders throughout Massachusetts. At Beacon, I am privileged to work with a dedicated and engaged team, whose community focus allows us continued growth with purpose,” said Ms. Goodman.

Beacon is a privately owned real estate firm that develops, acquires, invests in, and manages a wide range of multi-family housing. Our portfolio includes affordable housing, market rate housing and mixed income-housing. Our developments range from new construction, to historic adaptive reuse, to the renovation of existing housing. We take on challenging developments and make them succeed. Our driving passion is to create well-designed, healthy homes that improve the quality of life of our residents and enhance the neighborhoods in which they are located.
