Beacon Communities Named Management Company of the Year at Central Pennsylvania Apartment Association's 2017 Best of Living Awards

Boston, MA, 10/31/17 – Beacon Communities earned several awards at Central Pennsylvania Apartment Association's 2017 Best of Living Awards held on October 5. The BOLA awards recognize excellence in the apartment industry.

Each year, the Pennsylvania Apartment Association honors apartment communities throughout Pennsylvania, recognizing excellence in curb appeal, leasing and marketing, maintenance programs, customer service, community service involvement, employee training and commitment to education. Properties and individuals are judged by industry experts from neighboring apartment associations.

Williamsburg Estates and Old City Hall, Beacon's communities in Harrisburg, Pa., were both recognized with Overall Community Excellence, Curb Appeal Excellence, and Maintenance Excellence recognition. In addition, Beacon Communities was honored as the Property Management Company of the Year for 2017.

The Pennsylvania Apartment Association – Central (formerly AACP) is a non-profit trade organization for the apartment and rental housing industry. They serve approximately 100 property management companies, owners, developers and property managers that manage or own nearly 60,000 apartment homes (450+ apartment communities).

Beacon is a privately owned real estate firm that develops, acquires, invests in, and manages a wide range of multi-family housing. Our portfolio includes affordable housing, market rate housing and mixed income-housing. Our developments range from new construction, to historic adaptive reuse, to the renovation of existing housing. We take on challenging developments and make them succeed. Our driving passion is to create well-designed, healthy homes that improve the quality of life of our residents and enhance the neighborhoods in which they are located.
