Beacon Communities' Partners Honored with Preservation Mass. Awards

Boston, MA, 5/4/16 – Beacon Communities' partners, Pam Goodman and Mercedes Farrando, are being recognized by Preservation Massachusetts for their work in preservation efforts at Beacon's developments. The 2016 Paul and Niki Tsongas Awards are Preservation Massachusetts' highest honor, each year recognizing the best preservation efforts and achievements throughout the commonwealth. This year the awards celebrate the success and accomplishments of 'Women in Preservation'. Both Mrs. Goodman and Ms. Farrando are being recognized for their contributions to preservation efforts in Massachusetts, including the rehabilitation and redevelopment of Ames Shovel Works.

Beacon is a privately owned real estate firm that develops, acquires, invests in, and manages a wide range of multi-family housing. Our portfolio includes affordable housing, market rate housing and mixed income-housing. Our developments range from new construction, to historic adaptive reuse, to the renovation of existing housing. We take on challenging developments and make them succeed. Our driving passion is to create well-designed, healthy homes that improve the quality of life of our residents and enhance the neighborhoods in which they are located.
